

Food and Nutrition

Individuals and Families do not worry about feeding themselves and/or their children

Warmth

Individuals and Families have safe, continuous, and affordable home energy

Housing

Individuals and Families have stable housing

Health

Individuals and Families have healthcare that meets their needs

Mobility

Individuals and Families have reliable and efficient transportation

Income

Individuals and Families have enough income available to meet their basic needs

Warmth

- % of households where home energy loss is prevented
- % of households where home energy loss is prevented
- Change in restoration % (Warmth1) in relation to prevention % (Warmth2)
- Average % reduction in energy burden
- % of households who report more efficient energy use

Health

- % of uninsured individuals that obtain health insurance
- % of individuals who report changed status related to usual source of care

Income

- % of households who increase non-cash benefits
- Average reported $ increase in non-cash benefits (childcare, SNAP, energy assistance, etc)
- % of households who increase disposable income
- Average $ and percentage increase in disposable income

Food

- % of households who reported reduced risk of food insecurity

Housing

- % of homeless households safely sheltered
- % of at risk homeless households that obtain permanent housing
- % of at risk households that maintain housing (prevention of homelessness)

Mobility

- Change in amount of time it takes households to get where they need to go

Safe & Thriving Children

Individuals and Families have support necessary to raise thriving and resilient children

Financial Resilience

Individuals and Families have assets necessary to weather financial crises

Legal Status

Individuals and Families have legal status

Social Networks and Connections

Individuals and Families have social networks and connections

Education

Individuals and Families have education necessary to meet their goals

Employment

Individuals and Families have employment
necessary to meet their goals

Safe & Thriving Children

Financial Resilience

- % of individuals that achieve their goal of opening a savings account and/or IDA
- % of individuals that achieved their goal of adding money to their savings and/or IDA
- % of households who achieved their goal of reducing debt

- % of families reporting increased quality of childcare
- % of families reporting increased affordability of childcare
- % of parents who demonstrate increased sensitivity and responsiveness with their interactions with children (based on teacher observations)
- % of individuals who report they feel more supported in their role as parents

Social Networks and Connections

- % of individuals who increase the number of people they can call on in time of need
- % of individuals who perceive themselves as a more active member of the community
- % of individuals who report more hours supporting others in their community

Legal Status

- % of adults that achieve their goal of legal status
- % of children that achieve their goal of legal status

Employment

- % of unemployed youth who achieve their goal of obtaining employment
- % of unemployed adults who achieve their goal of obtaining employment (at or above living wage)
- % of individuals who enter or transition into an employment position that provided increased income and/or benefits (salary increase, hour increase, and/or increased benefits)

Education

- % of children entering kindergarten who meet school readiness goals related to Language and Literacy
- % of children entering kindergarten who meet school readiness goals related to Cognition and General Knowledge
- % of children entering kindergarten who meet school readiness goals related to Approaches to Learning
- % of children entering kindergarten who meet school readiness goals related to physical health and development
- % of children entering kindergarten who meet school readiness goals related to social and emotional development
- % of individuals who achieve goal of obtaining GED or Diploma
- % of individuals who achieve their goal completing of post-secondary education or training

Growth Mindset

Individuals and Families have a sense of influence over events that affect them and can act on it

Growth Mindset

- % of individuals who report more control over their current circumstances
- % of individuals who report more control or influence over their future outcomes
- % of individuals who perceive more control or influence in their community